

JCHEM-RPO

Technical Bulletin

RUST PREVENTIVE OIL

RUST PREVENTIVE OIL is an excellent rust preventive oil currently sell in the market with good economical value. It is suitable for use in high humid tropical climate. It is an organic filming compound, which prevents rust from forming in ferrous metals during indoor storage or outdoor exposure.

RUST PREVENTIVE OIL is organic in nature and contains preservative to prevent bacterial degradation. It is transparent to permit visibility of work components and it can be removed at later stage by non-polar solvents or surfactants.

Characteristics

- (1) An amber organic solvent component.
- (2) Excellent for rust prevention.
- (3) Non-toxic and non-inflammable.
- (4) Odourless, transparent and non-foaming.
- (5) Miscible with other organic solvent.

Application Methods

RUST PREVENTIVE OIL is normally applied by brushing, hand spray or immersion.