

JCHEM-RI

Technical Bulletin

RUST INHIBITOR

RUST INHIBITOR is an excellent water-soluble rust preventive product currently in the markets with good economical value for usage and it is one of our product ranges in corrosion protection of metals. It is suitable for use as temporary measure in high humid tropical climate. It is an organic and inorganic compound, which prevent rust from forming in ferrous metals during indoor storage or outdoor exposure for short-term period.

RUST INHIBITOR is environmental friendly with nature and contains preservative to prevent bacterial degradation. It is transparent to permit visibility of work components and it can be removed at later stage by water.

CHARACTERISTICS

- (1) A light amber solution.
- (2) Excellent for rust prevention.
- (3) Non-toxic and non-inflammable.
- (4) Odorless, transparent and non-foaming.
- (5) Total miscible with water.

APPLICATION METHODS

RUST INHIBITOR is normally can be applied by brushing, hand spray or immersion. Deionised water is recommended to achieve best results.